

Don Chisholm

DON CHISHOLM MEMORIAL FUND
Leading the Way to a Charitable Lifestyle

Don Chisholm was a talented lawyer at the firm of Stinson, Mag & Fizzell, now Stinson Morrison Hecker. His legacy to Kansas City reaches beyond his chosen profession, and his vision will be appreciated for generations to come.

A strong supporter of charitable giving and a mentee of the legendary Arthur Mag, Don introduced his clients to the benefits of contributing their estates to the Greater Kansas City Community Foundation to support their favorite charitable causes.

One of Don's many claims to fame was drafting documents to establish the Jacob L. and Ella C. Loose Foundation, Kansas City's first million-dollar charity. Don served on that foundation's board for 41 years. When the idea for a community foundation was proposed, Don was there to help it along as a founding director, and in 1984 played a key role in establishing many of the funds added during that critical year.

During his lifetime, Don helped open new doors to charitable giving. Today, many attorneys, accountants and financial advisors follow his lead, and for several years, the Don Chisholm Memorial Fund recognized special professionals in their commitment to helping clients give back.

FROM COAST TO COAST

90% of attorneys, accountants and financial advisors in America state that they routinely raise the subject of charitable giving with high net worth clients.

Source: "Doing Well By Doing Good: Improving Client Service, Increasing Philanthropic Capital: The Legal and Financial Advisor's Role." The Philanthropic Initiative. June 2000. <<http://tqi.org>>.

IN KANSAS CITY

More than 400 attorneys, accountants and financial advisors regularly refer clients to the Greater Kansas City Community Foundation.

Source: Greater Kansas City Community Foundation

